

Conference Theme: Literature in the Cultural Borderlands

Literary Association of Nepal (LAN)

44th International Conference
Lumbini, Nepal, March 1-2, 2024

In collaboration with
Lumbini Buddhist University

Presentations will also include a broad range of literary and cultural narratives crossing the borders such as language barriers and negotiations, literary theories, regional literature, translation studies, Nepali literature, comparative literature, creative writing, performance studies -- among others.

World cultures make a mosaic.

Abstract submission

Send in an abstract (250-500 words)
of your presentation by January 31, 2024
to lankathmandu@gmail.com

For details, contact:

Dr. Khum Prasad Sharma
General Secretary
Literary Association of Nepal
Mobile: +9779851075124 (WhatsApp)
Website: literarynepal.org.np

Dr. Kumar Khadka
Director
Center of International Relations
Lumbini Buddhist University
Mobile: +9779823090621 (WhatsApp)
Website: lbu.edu.np

Dr. Jai Singh
Assoc. Professor of English
The English and Foreign Languages University, Hyderabad, India +918897048598 (WhatsApp) jai@efluniversity.ac.in

Registration

- Nepali delegates: Early bird: Rs. 6,000/- On the spot: Rs. 8,000/-
- SAARC delegates: INR 6,000 or equivalent
- Delegates outside SAARC: US$ 100 or equivalent
- Non-Nepalese registration can be paid with a bank draft or on-the-spot.

The registration fee covers conference pack and day meals and moderate accommodation for two nights. A bus service to Lumbini from Kathmandu and return will also be arranged.

